Bob Hinchcliffe, Email: jrhinchcliffe@accesscomm.ca Telephone (306) 591-0776

2008: Hinchcliffe Investigations – Private Investigator

- Indian Residential Schools -Truth & Reconciliation Commission contract investigator - cases involving persons of interest from the St Paul's and St Mary's IRS.
- Investigated the North Central Family Centre hostile takeover attempt.

1982 to 2007: Regina Police Service

I served as a supervisor at the Regina Children's Justice Centre, Domestic Violence and Elder Abuse, Community Programs, North Central Service Centre, Street Crimes and Commercial Crime, as an investigator in Commercial Crime and the B & E Task Force and as a front line worker in Crime Prevention, Traffic and Patrol.

Throughout my police career, I have accomplished the following:

- Led an RCMP/RPS joint forces investigation into a major fraud against the Métis Nation of Saskatchewan;
- Conducted and supervised many serious investigations of child sexual abuse and domestic violence, including incest, sexual assault, procuring and stalking;
- Developed and implemented the SAFEBUS program, a partnership between Regina Transit, Regina Police, Block Parents and the Never be a Victim Program, in which, all transit operators are screened and their buses are mobile Block Parent safe havens;
- Established Regina Fire Stations as Block Parent locations;
- Introduced the Never be a Victim child street proofing program to Regina and partnered with Block Parents to supply this program to every school in Regina;
- Introduced the Wandering Persons Registry to Saskatchewan before it was embraced by the Canadian Association of Chiefs of Police;
- Served on the Saskatchewan Association of Crime Prevention Police Practitioners and was responsible for the administration of the provincial grant to fund an Auto Theft Prevention public awareness program;
- In 1995, when the RCMP faced cancellation of the Sunset-Retreat Ceremonies, as Pipe Major of the Regina Police Service Pipes and Drums, I formed a partnership wherein the cadets performed a drill display and our band performed the music;
- Delivered a paper on Elder Abuse to the Northern Saskatchewan Trial Lawyers Association of the Canadian Bar Association;
- Helped establish provincial legislation for the automated pawn registration and paid door-to-door charitable fund raising canvassers Acts in Saskatchewan.

1980 to 1982: President - Canadian Body Armour Limited, Toronto, Ontario.

1977 to 1981: Police Constable - Metro Toronto Police.

1972 to 1974: Police Cadet – Metro Toronto Police.
